Kenneth Johnson Is Candidate for Commission Post

Kenneth D. Johnson, a lifelong resident of Heber City and Wasatch County, has entered the race for the four-year Wasatch County Commissioners office on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Johnson was educated in the Wasatch County Schools, is an active member of the LDS, and has conducted a business in Heber City for the past fifteen years. He has always actively supported good business and good business practices—he has made his home and invested his capital in Wasatch County so that it might grow and expand. Mr. Johnson is interested in seeing a real progressive county commission and would spend his time in bringing new industries and businesses into our county so that our young people could work and live at home instead of taking their talents out of our community and state in order to earn a livelihood. He has the necessary knowledge and background that is needed to understand the needs of the businessman, stockman, schools, church and the young people of our county.

Mr. Johnson seeks your support in the coming September Primary.
